Lenten Mission
FOR REAL? Christ's Presence in the Eucharist
Deacon Dennis Lambert

March 16th and 17th
9am and 4pm

March 18th
9am and 3pm

Dennis Lambert was once among the 31% of regular Mass attendees who, according to Pew Research, did not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Today, Deacon Dennis Lambert passionately proclaims the truth of Christ's presence, sharing his powerful journey from doubt to deep faith.

Ordained in 2014 for the Diocese of Phoenix, Dcn. Dennis lives with Debbie, his high school sweetheart and wife of forty years. He is a graduate of Lake Forest College and the Kino Catechetical Institute and is pursuing a master's degree in Pastoral Studies through Loyola. Before retirement, he spent 29 years in pharmaceutical brand and sales management.

He serves in parish ministry, leads men's groups, prepares couples for marriage and baptism, and ministers to the sick and those in hospice care. He is the author of The Table and FOR REAL? Christ's Presence in the Eucharist, which is also the title of his talk—a clear and relatable defense of the Eucharist.

Dennis and Debbie also share their love of music, performing together and appearing with artists such as Tom Booth and Matt Maher.

Interested in Serving as a Nullity Minister?

We are looking for parishioners who feel called to serve in a compassionate and pastoral way by assisting those seeking information about marriage, divorce, and annulments.

The Diocese will be offering the 2026 Nullity Minister Training in May, a four-day formation that prepares participants to become certified Nullity Ministers. This training provides in-depth instruction on the Church's teachings and canon law regarding marriage and equips ministers to help guide parishioners through the annulment petition process.

This ministry is open to clergy, religious, and lay faithful who have a heart for accompaniment and a desire to walk with others during sensitive and often difficult moments in their lives.

If you are interested in learning more about this ministry opportunity and the May training dates, please contact the parish office for additional information.

We invite you to prayerfully consider how God may be calling you to serve.
