Each presentation continues from the previous one, forming a three-day mission exploring Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Mission Topics

- Jesus' teaching on His Presence in the Eucharist
- The witness of the Apostles, Early Church, and the Church today
- Old Testament prefigurements and sharing this truth with others

About Deacon Dennis Lambert

Ordained in 2014 for the Diocese of Phoenix, Deacon Dennis Lambert passionately shares the truth of Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist, drawing from his own journey from doubt to deep faith.

He is a graduate of Lake Forest College and the Kino Catechetical Institute, and is pursuing a master's degree in Pastoral Studies through Loyola. Before retirement, he spent 29 years in pharmaceutical brand and sales management.

Deacon Dennis serves in parish ministry, leads men's groups, prepares couples for marriage and baptism, and ministers to the sick and those in hospice care. He is the author of The Table and FOR REAL? Christ's Presence in the Eucharist.

He and his wife Debbie, married over 40 years, share a love of music and have performed with artists such as Tom Booth and Matt Maher.

Interested in Serving as a Nullity Minister?

We are looking for parishioners who feel called to serve in a compassionate and pastoral way by assisting those seeking information about marriage, divorce, and annulments.

The Diocese will be offering the 2026 Nullity Minister Training in May, a four-day formation that prepares participants to become certified Nullity Ministers. This training provides in-depth instruction on the Church's teachings and canon law regarding marriage and equips ministers to help guide parishioners through the annulment petition process.

This ministry is open to clergy, religious, and lay faithful who have a heart for accompaniment and a desire to walk with others during sensitive and often difficult moments in their lives.

If you are interested in learning more about this ministry opportunity and the May training dates, please contact the parish office for additional information.

We invite you to prayerfully consider how God may be calling you to serve.
